Black Diagonal
Cutaway Coats
and Vests
For $7.50.

Here is an offering never equaled since we've been in business. We have run through the stock and culled out every "broken" lot of Men's Fine Black English Clay Diagonal Cutaway Coat and Vest regardless of price, and shall offer them tomorrow at 7.50. No need to dwell upon the merits of this offering. The plain statement is sufficient. We have all sizes in the lot, but have not all sizes in any one particular lot. Below we give the stock, and you can judge for yourself the necessity of hurrying. In them are included "regular" sizes, "long and slims" and "shorts and stouts."

Lot 9823—Size 36 only. Was $25; now $7.50.

WILL BE FOUR GAMES

A Carnival of Foot Ball Here
Tomorrow.

UNUSUAL EVENT AT NATIONAL PARK
Interest Increases in the Capitol
Park Contest.

HOWARD UNIVERSITY SPORT

There never has been such a demonstration of interest in foot ball in this city as has been shown during the present season. Instead of one game on Thanksgiving day, there will be four, in which eight eleven, all skillful and competent teams, will compete. The games all seem to promise some exceptionally fine playing, as the teams are very closely matched in each instance, and it is expected that the scores in each contest will be separated by a very narrow margin.

Two Games at National Park.

National Park, at the head of 7th street, will be the scene of two foot ball games. The Oriens and the Gallaudets will play at 12 o'clock, and immediately following that game will be one between the Gallaudets and the Canterburys. The two games will be played for the price of one admission, and, as the friends of the four teams will be out in force, it is expected that the attendance will nearly rival that of the Columbian-Columbia game. The first game will be played under the Harvard-Cornell-Pennsylvania rules, while the game between the Gallaudets and Canterburys will take place under Yale-Princeton regulations.

The four teams have been playing an unusually strong game. The Canterburys have defeated the Gallaudets, and given them this chance to retrieve themselves, while the Oriens and Potomacs played not long ago to a standstill, neither side being able to score.

The Gallaudets have been defeated twice this year, by the University of Virginia and the Canterburys, while the Oriens have also had one throw-down, at the hands of the Baltimore Athletic Club.

The officials for the Potomac-Oriens game are as follows: Referee, A. P. Schell, umpire, B. T. Welch, Jr.; linesmen, H. R. Sisson and J. J. Stewart.

Those who will officiate in the Gallaudet-Canterbury game are: A. P. Schell, referee; G. Mahoney, umpire; B. J. Webers and Roy Gough, linesmen. The grounds will be in first-class condition, and the means to keep the crowd from the field will be on hand.

The Four Teams.

The Capitol Park Contest.

The Columbia Athletic Club-Columbian University game has probably attracted the greatest amount of attention, as the C. A. C. boys are the holders of the championship cup. The C. A. C. team has been playing right along, with varying success, and has at last succeeded in getting a team into shape that has satisfied its managers. It is the first time since the team was organized sixteen players, who have been for some time under Manager Wells' eye: F. H. Parsons, G. P. Hooker, R. W. Maupin, P. M. Widener, J. J. Mackey, left tackle; McGowan, Busey, D. McConville, F. R. Underwood, A. McConville, J. H. Hess, L. Stump, J. J. Mackey, right tackle; Clark. The line-up of the Varsity team as published in yesterday's Star will be the one used Thanksgiving day.

The Oriens will be opposed under the Yale-Princeton rules, and will be refereed by Dr. J. Robb Church. Mr. Al Lett will act as umpire, and the linesmen will be Ormsby, McCannan and Grand Parvolls. Capitol Park has been thoroughly gone over, and it is expected that it will be in good shape for the game by tomorrow. Ample seating facilities will be provided, and the comfort of the spectators will be looked out for as far as possible.

At Howard University.

The white and blue of Howard University will again meet the orange and purple of the High School tomorrow, and a warm game is expected on the Howard University campus. Game will be called at 12 o'clock. Both teams are in excellent condition, but sentiment seems to favor the orange and purple.

Young, but Experienced Players.

Although a great many of the players composing the four teams who will play at National Park are young men, they are not necessarily inexperienced in foot ball. Referee, A. P. Schell, umpire, B. T. Welch, Jr.; linesmen, H. R. Sisson and J. J. Stewart.

Those who will officiate in the Gallaudet-Canterbury game are: A. P. Schell, referee; G. Mahoney, umpire; B. J. Webers and Roy Gough, linesmen. The grounds will be in first-class condition, and the means to keep the crowd from the field will be on hand.
